LOADING A GIFT FOR THE KAISER Above is shown a busy group of sailors placing a torpedo in the hold of an American battleship "somewhere in the Atlantic."

The Young Lady Across the Way

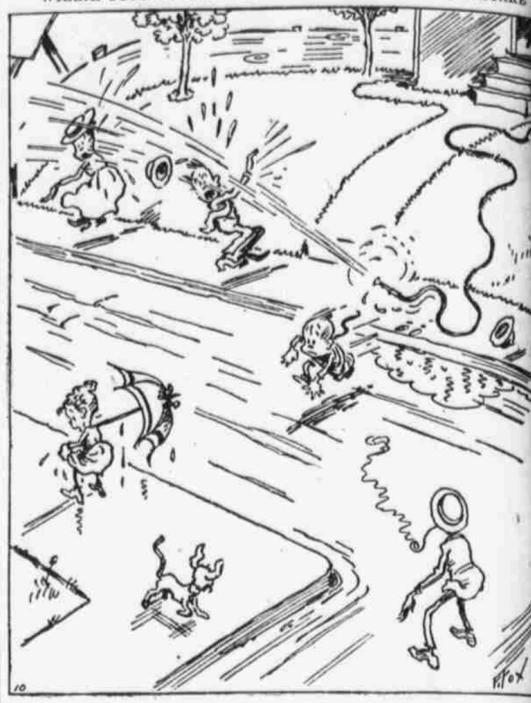

The young lady across the way says cotton is getting so scarce and high that we may have to come to calico yet.

Time to Revive It

Way back yonder it was customary for subscriptions to be paid in chickens, eggs, hams, wool, wool, apples, sweet potatoes, butter or any other article raised on the farm. The plan worked all right in the days of long ago, and it looks like it is going to become popular with the rural press again. It is a good sign when a man wants his weekly paper had enough to be willing to bring in a bag of sweet potatoes, geese or other things with which to reimburse the editor.—Montgomery Journal.
